Updates by C. Bordino

Tentative Youth Sports Tournaments are being pursued by New Paltz Youth Soccer, August, and Ulster Fillies Travel Youth Softball, October. Tentative meeting with the local Youth Sports Organizations has been scheduled for June 26, Recreation Committee continues to Solicit said organizations. The Town Board has approved the initial 10,000 in Parkland Funds for the Soccer Fields Project; Chris Marks will initiate the excavating work sometime in August.

Photo shoot and various interviews by New Paltz Times with the Recreation Committee Members, notably Wayne Pyle who is overseeing the Movie Night Project.

The Committee meeting ensued directly after the media session to discuss final logistics and fiscal concerns regarding the presentation of the first and subsequent movies.

Pyle continues to work on fund raising in close association with the Arts Community, numerous local businesses have shown interest in sponsoring the venue.

Recreation Committee agreed to adjourn until September, meeting adjourned at 8:15pm.
