

Zero Waste Day at the New Paltz Recycling Center

---

June 2nd 10am-2:30pm

Join us for a day of free workshops and music at the New Paltz Recycling Center. The intention of this event is to spread knowledge and awareness relevant to the current movement towards Zero Waste, Sustainability and Local Resilience. Workshops will be ongoing, come any time and have access to discuss with local experts.

Workshops Include:

- Composting with and without Worms
- Waste Vegetable Oil Cars
- Tool Repair with the Ulster County Tool Bank
- Growing Food
- Herbal Medicine
- Wild Edibles
- Green Cleaners
- Musical Instruments from Rescued Materials & Arts & Crafts
- Zero Waste Initiative
- Solar Cooking
- Wheel of "Recycling"
- Special Musical Guests Tulula & Golden Eggs

Tulula! has been stomping around Rip Van Winkle's dreamland since 2006. The Acid-Cowboy trio of Jason Broome (the Westport Sunrise Sessions, Gilding the Lily), Rob Norris (the Bongos, Amy Poux Band, East of Venus, Blue Paradox) and Chris Bradley (June Cleaver and the Steak Knives, My Third Demon <http://myspace.com/tululamusic>)

An acoustic duo called the Golden Eggs (Rich Newman and Leo Glaser), play original music and some cover songs. "Our songs are about the different shades of romance, the beauty of nature, and about inner strength!"
