

Bicycle Pedestrian Committee
Meeting Minutes
November 26, 2018

PRESENT

Members: Donna Bruschi, David Brownstein, Dan Lipson, Judy Mage, Janelle Peotter, Michael Reade

Guest: Kristin Brown, Tim Rogers

Meeting called to order at 7:07pm

1. Amelia Rose is resigning from the committee.
2. The committee wishes to honor our previous chair, Peter Kaufman, who passed away last week.
3. Our committee's input to village and town boards regarding proposed Trans-Hudson development at N. Putt Corners and Route 299.
4. The committee members raised bicycle/pedestrian safety concerns regarding the vehicle exit plan for Trans-Hudson's proposed development at N. Putt Corners bordering 299.
5. Complete Streets/ Pedestrian and Bicycle Strategic Plan: Janelle is hoping to locate documentation of New Paltz's commitment to complete streets.
6. David informed the committee that the town is considering making it illegal to park your car with tires on the road. You can park on grass. As long as you're off the road surface, it is okay. Chief Snyder is looking for a graduated fine – warning first, then fine next time. Stopping to deliver is allowable.
