

Community Improvement Team

November 2, 2016

ATTENDED: S. Stegen V. Danskin, C. Roper, R. Minkoff

FUNDS: Balances: Village $3,399.95; Town $4,466.47. A few bills still outstanding. CIT usually does not expend all of the funds allocated in any one year.

INFO KIOSK: The kiosk at the Municipal Parking Lot on Plattekill Ave. was updated. Vici had extra posters prepared in case replacements are needed. Village Public Works did the installation.

LITTER: Tammy Friedmann continues to work with Ulster Co. Probation's workers groups to clean up litter.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE DAY: This October was the first time CIT did not participate.

CLEAN SWEEP: This late April event is continued through the work of Sue Stegen and Richard Heyl de Ortiz. Vici Danskin and Carol Roper volunteered at the Village Hall textile recycling station.

CIT INFO: Sue Stegen spoke at the May 19 joint meeting of the Town and Village boards about CIT's history and goals.

PUBLIC GARDEN MAINTENANCE: Vici Danskin continues to work at the Community Center's two entrance rain gardens. She also maintains Friendship Garden in Peace Park.

COMMUNICATION WITH MUNICIPAL GOV'TS: June 23 CIT met with Town and Village officials to discuss ideas about encouraging civic pride and property maintenance issues.

MAIN ST. DECOR: Village Public Works continues to care for hanging flower baskets from June to September. Also, American flags are hung from June to mid-November. Snow flake banners are hung November through February.

NEXT MEETING: BYOB (breakfast!) December 7, 8:30 a.m. January through April some CIT members will work to organizer the late April community-wide Clean Sweep event.
