8. Review and discuss recommendation of the NPPRRC: All members of the NPPD should fit the criteria or our Ideal Officer, be they current members or future hires. The Ideal Officer is one who:
 - a. Has or wants deep ties to the community in which they serve.
 - b. Actively seeks training and education, especially in those areas that lead to de-escalation and deeper understanding, such as: social work, addiction services, mental health counselling, psychology, foreign languages, domestic violence interventions.

- c. Are committed to non-violent solutions to community problems.
- d. Have a demonstrable commitment to anti-racism (not the same as being unbiased).
- e. This is a general list that should be built upon and made more specific and nuanced over time. We are aware that there may be those who disagree with the shift in thinking and practice that we are proposing. Given our community commitment to anti-racism as a way of being together that is essential to community safety and wellness, there must be a means of moving forward.
