The New Paltz Police Department Detective Division has been investigating a series of burglaries and larcenies that occurred between July 14, 2020 and July 21, 2020. The New Paltz Police Department received reports of a burglary and criminal mischief to a local car wash on two separate occasions and several reports of larcenies from parked vehicles.

Following a month-long investigation, probable cause was established to charge Dominick Teroni with all of the incidents. Mr. Teroni was located in the Town of Lloyd by New Paltz PD Detectives and taken into custody without incident.

Mr. Teroni was arraigned by Town Justice Bacon and remanded to Ulster County Jail with no bail. He is scheduled to return to New Paltz Court for a preliminary hearing on August 18, 2020 at 5:30pm.

The New Paltz Police Department was assisted at the scene by the Town of Lloyd Police Department.
